

This Coromandel Native Nursery fact sheet is a guide only .

Dianella revoluta "Little Rev"

Description; Compact, blue clump forming plant with excellent foliage contrast all year.

Grows to ; 30 to 40 centimeters tall the spread 30 centimeters wide.

Position ; Tolerates the wide range of soils and climactic requirements. Suited to full sun as well as shady positions very hardly exhibiting frost and drought tolerance.

Uses; Mass planting, borders, foliage contrast and low-water requirement gardens.

Maintenance; planned in a well mulched garden. Fertilize with slow-release fertilizer once a year in spring. Trim if required to remove old leaves.

Dianella Little Rev is extremely tough and available all year.

For more information call or fax our office PH 8388 2777 FAX 8388 2711